The Spirit Moves Us

Martin Methodist College is alive this year — full of new things, new people, and new life. It is this new drive and activity which presents us with the essence of MMC for 1988-89 — THE SPIRIT MOVES US. We are a unified campus, filled with the spirit; our academics, campus life, sports, and personal religious experiences become more satisfying, more complete. The spirit does move us, and we invite you to join us as we continue on to bigger and better things . . .

Do we trust the Business Manager's calls?

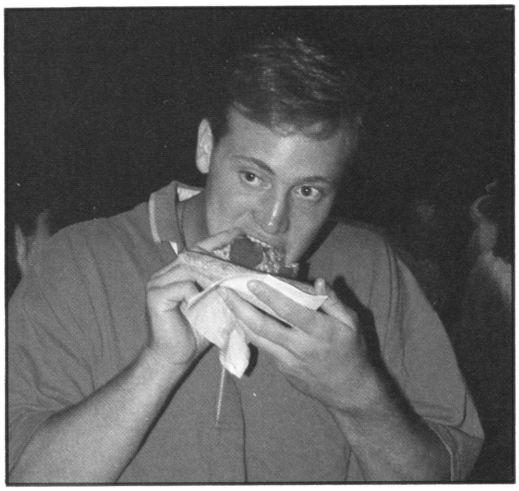

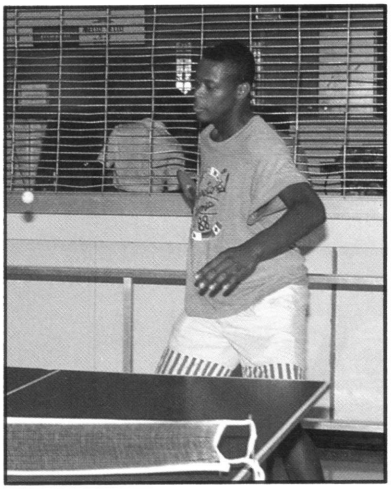

"Can't a guy get any privacy around here?"

"We get real excited about reading Shakespeare!"

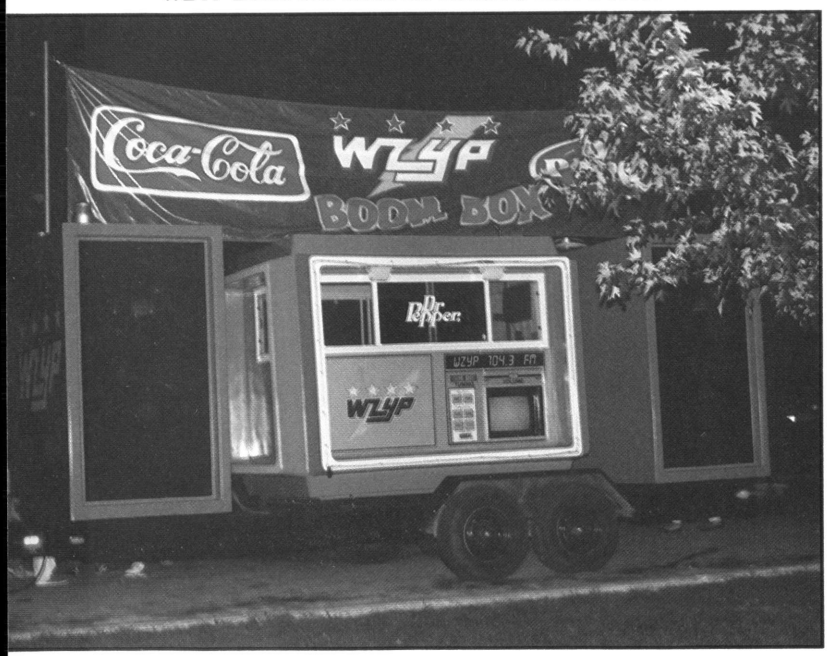

"This beats cafeteria food any day!"

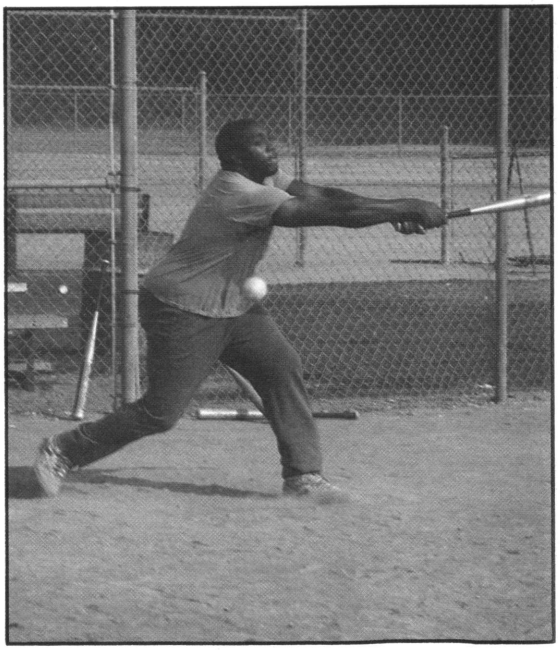

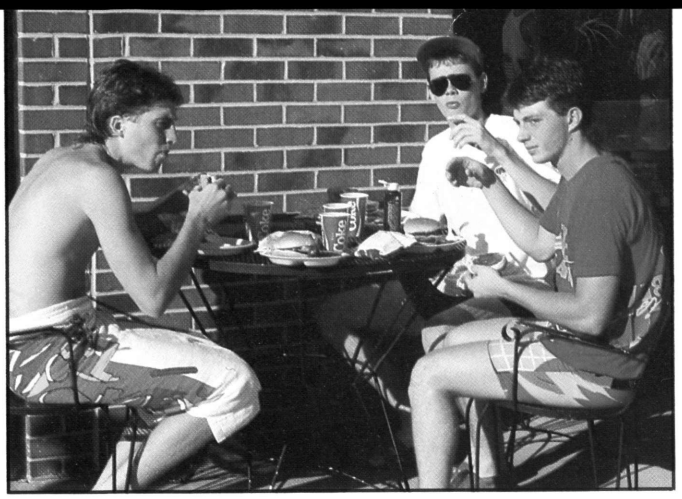

"I can hit it, I can hit it!"

WZYP Boom Box made the Hawaiian Luau a success!

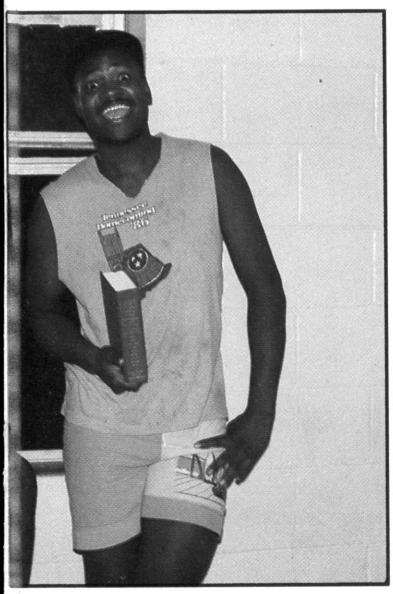

William Byrd missed spring training!

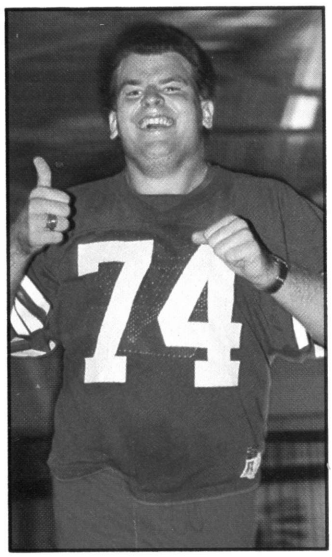

"On the other hand, maybe I will have seconds."

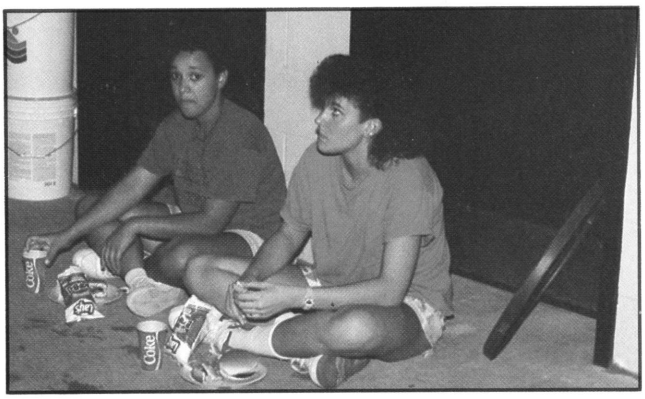

"I'm confused, are we lost or found?"

"I'm so happy I could just bust!"

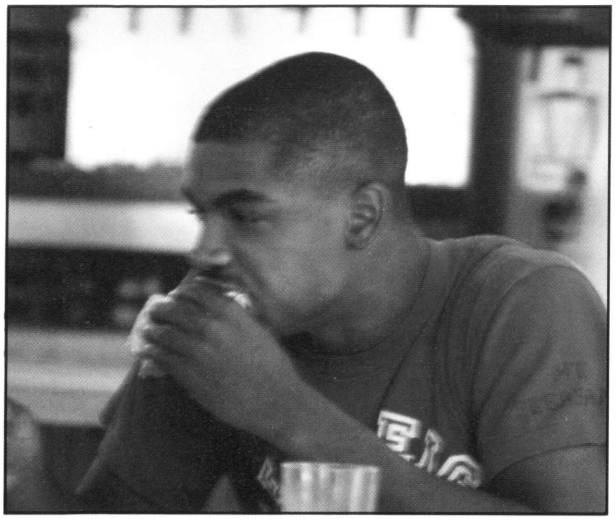

"We want to know what's for dessert!"

"I want the piece with the most pepperoni on it!"

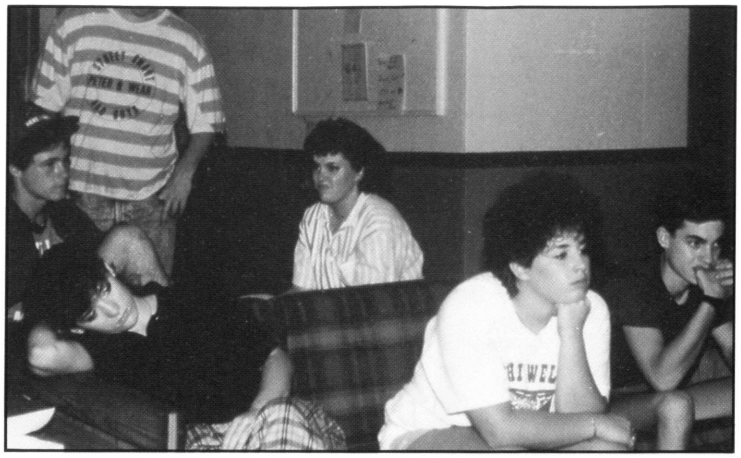

The spirit moved us to sleep through Lit. class.

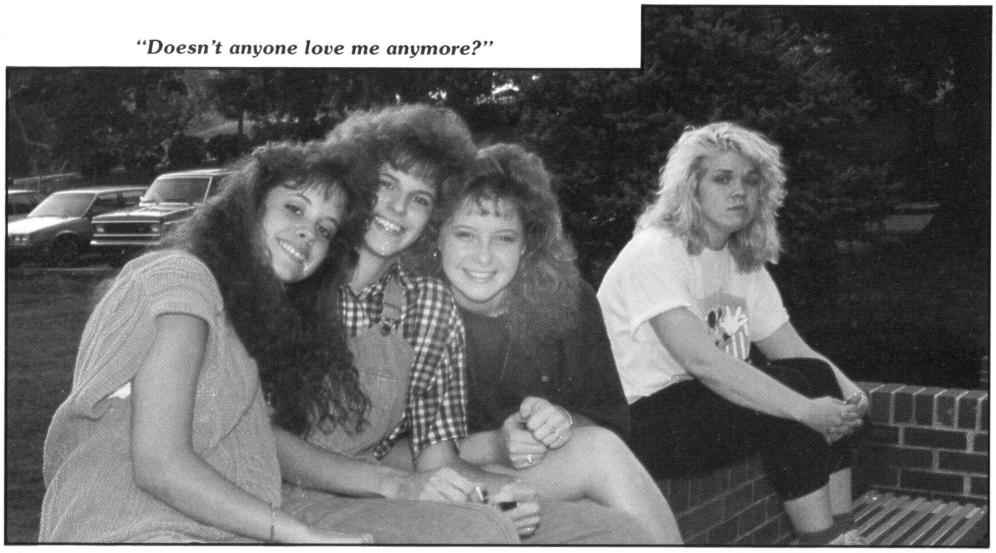

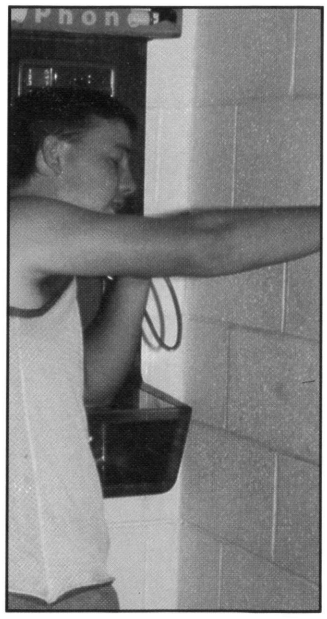

Danger! Keep fingers and hands away from this mouth!

Are we having fun yet?

"Doesn't anyone love me anymore?"

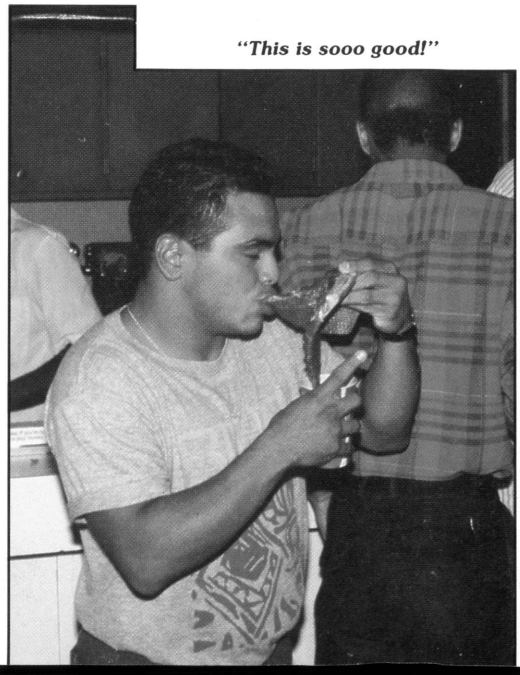

"But Dad I only need a couple hundred more to get me through the week!"

"Bubba Bear, can you say RANSOM?"

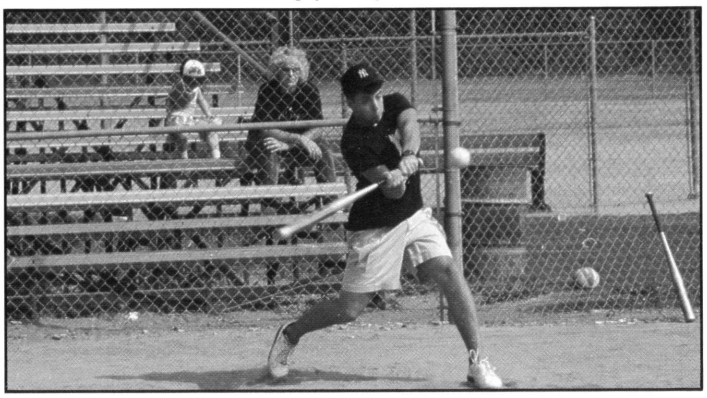

"This is sooo good!"

"I promise I didn't do it!"

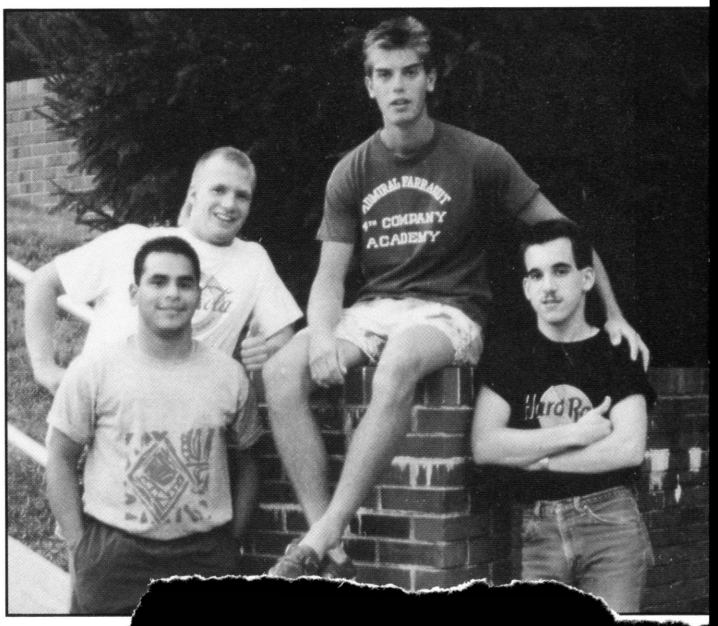

Keep your eye on the ball, Jeff!

"I hate it when they have an itch."

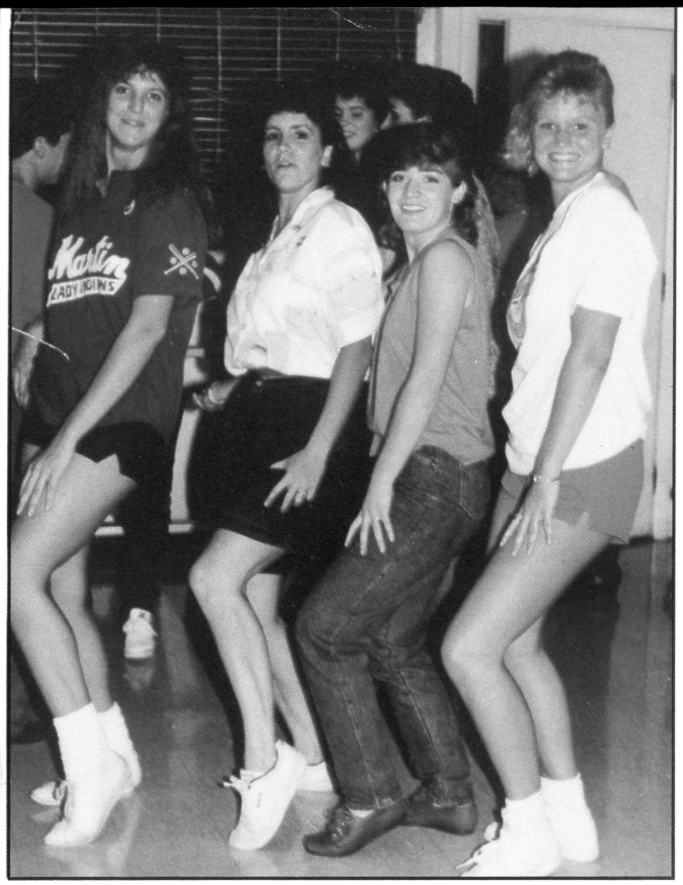

The Mickey Mouse Club!

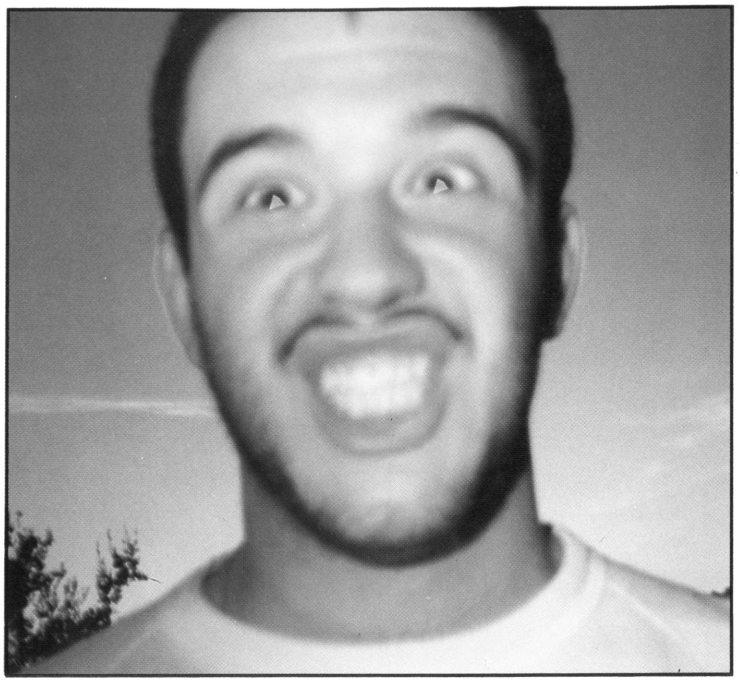

Motley Crue strikes again!

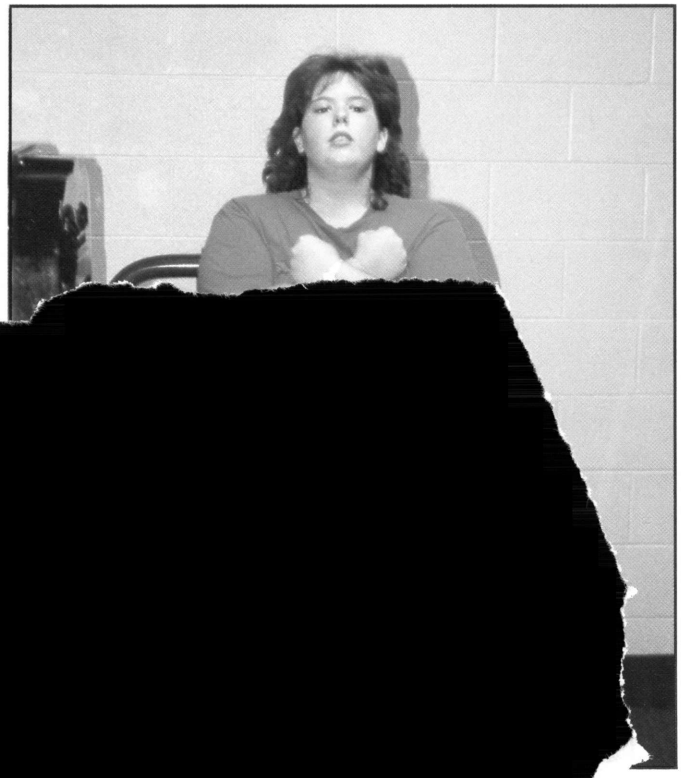

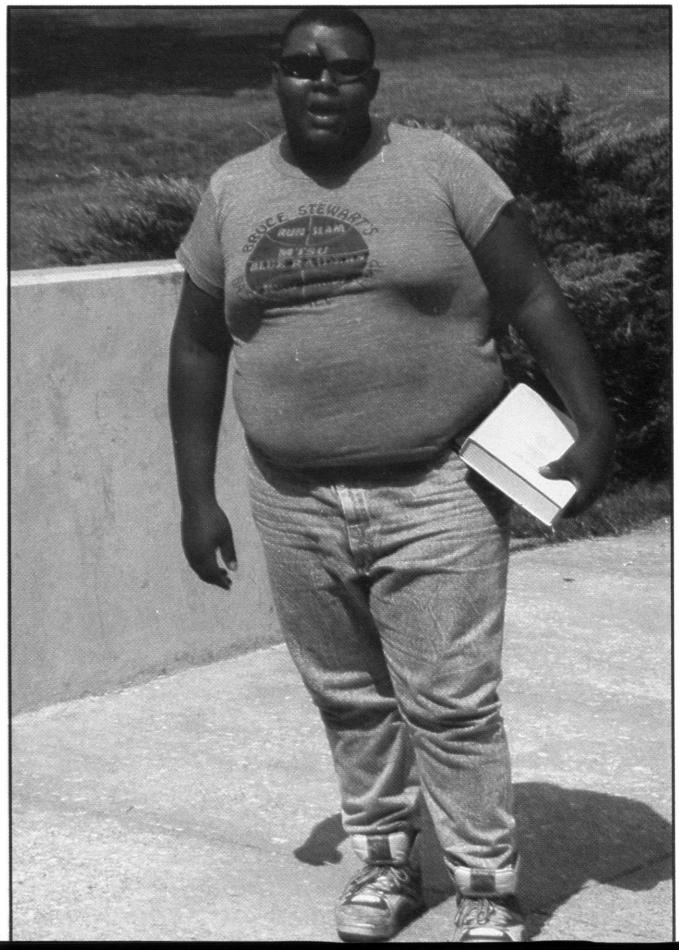

Come on baby, do the locomotion!

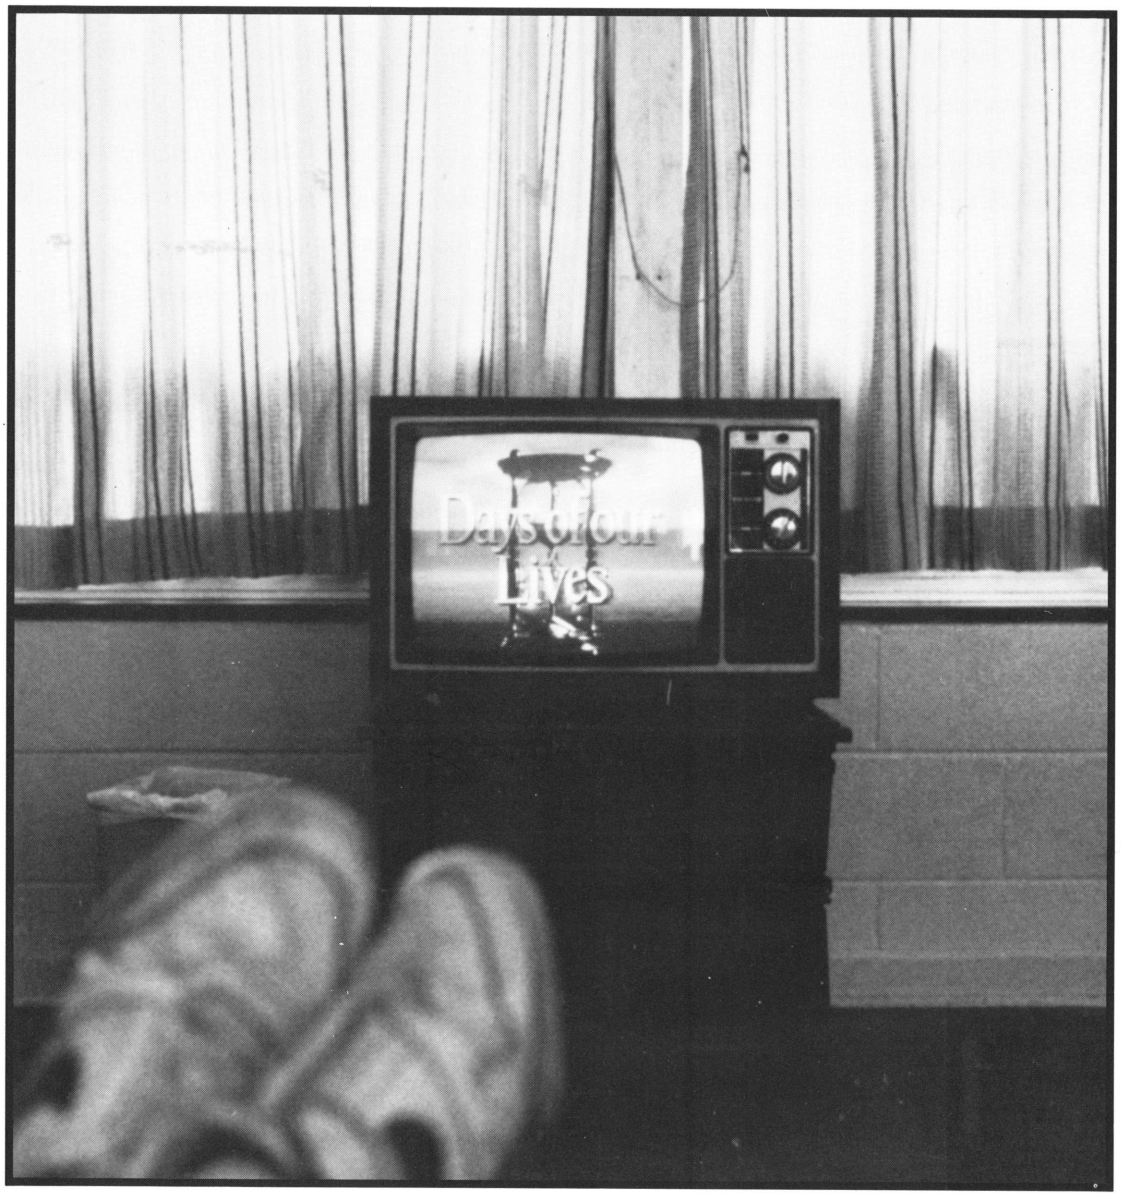

CHEESE!

I am the human ROCK BOX!

Experiencing The Spirit !

Now let's just keep this our secret.

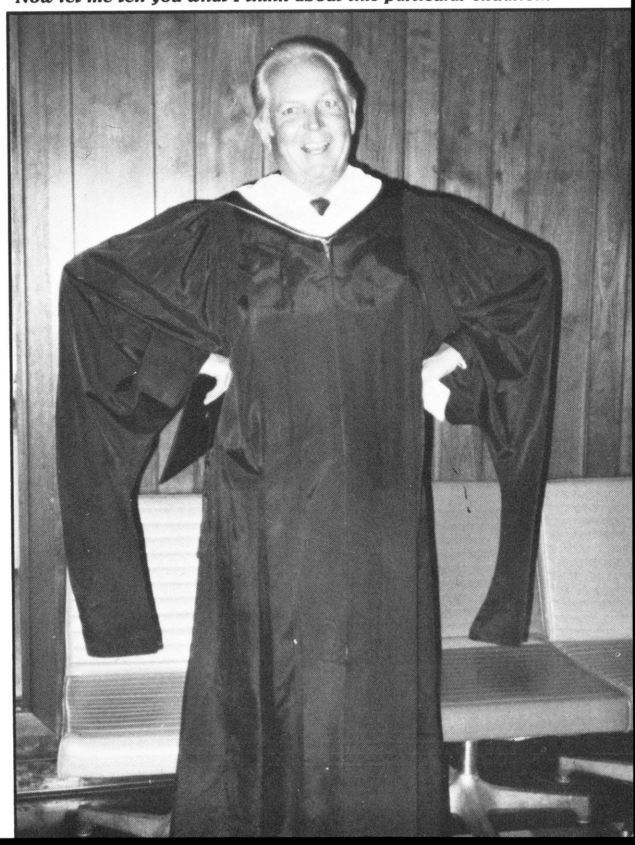

Let's begin with the "Thou Shall Nots . . ."

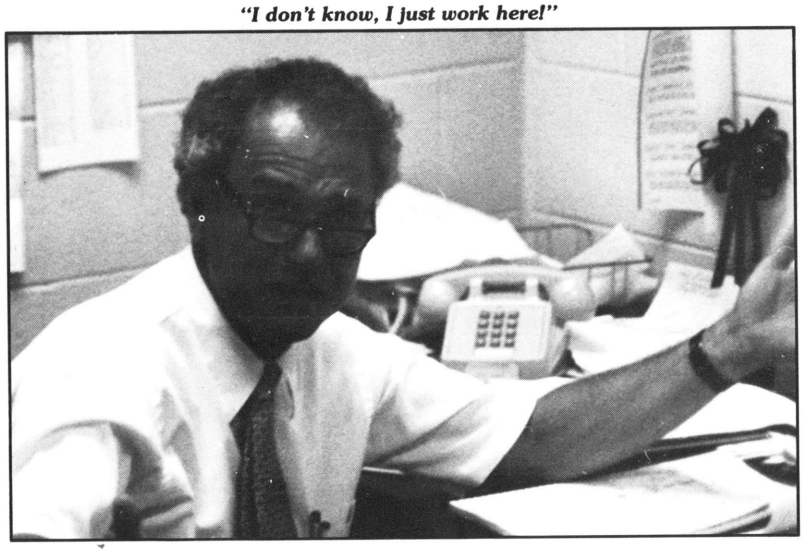

"Now class, follow along with me."

"Now let me tell you what I think about this particular situation."

"I don't know, I just work here!"

ASSOCIATED STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Associated Student Government exists for the purpose of promoting the ideals of self-government, coordinating student activities on the campus, and promoting the rights and responsibilities of the student body. All students are eligible to attend meetings and participate in discussions. Voting rights are bestowed on four executive officers, six freshman representatives, and the presidents of each campus organization. Duties of the ASG include planning and carrying out student activities, administering the student activity budget, and working to maintain a positive college environment.

"Our goal was to provide an avenue for the student body's voices to be heard; I believe we achieved that goal. Being ASG President this year has been a valuable learning experience, and has enriched my life in many ways."

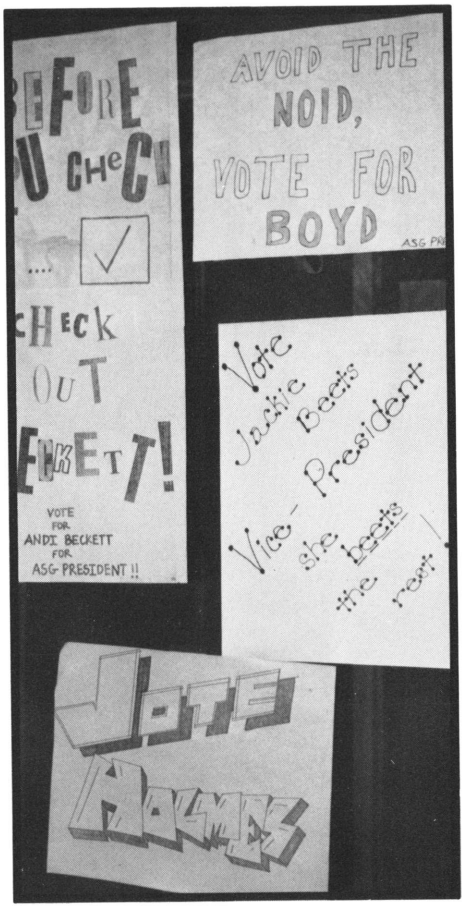

Kevin Boyd, ASG President

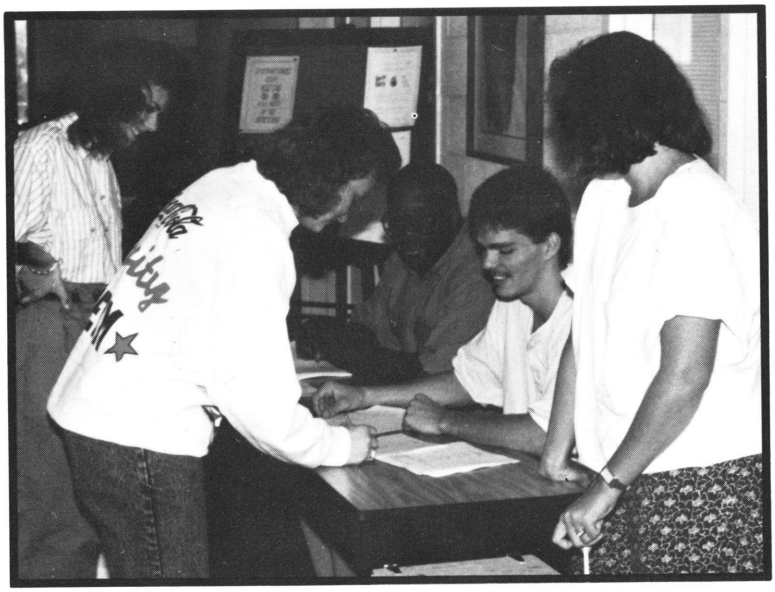

Kevin Boyd, ASG President

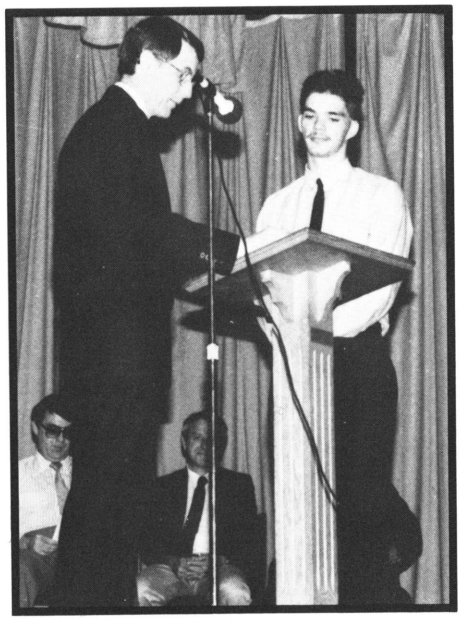

Students are very active in the "political" game when it's time for ASG elections.

The ASG sponsors many different activities each year. They include opening week Luau, dances (including the Spring Dance), Swimfest, the Nickell Picnic, various Halloween activities, movies on campus, the Talent Show, Christmas Tree Lighting and Communion, Homecoming, and other special events. ASG also sponsors several trips throughout the year; this year a weekend in Atlanta, Georgia to Six Flags and a Braves ballgame was enjoyed by a group of students, and a trip to Jamaica during Spring Break was a welcome change.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Student Christian Association is a campus-wide inter-denominational organization that seeks to encourage students to deepen their personal faith; it promotes a conscious effort to help create and maintain a Christian atmosphere on the Martin Methodist College campus. Every student enrolled at MMC is a member of the SCA. The executive council and the members of the SCA cabinet are elected from the student body. The SCA sponsors and promotes several events throughout the school year, some of which are the Halloween Boo-Out and Children's Christmas Party which are hosted by SCA for children of low-income families in Giles County.

Spiritual Emphasis Days are conducted by SCA once during each semester. These are special days set aside to bring special attention to the role of the church in our everyday life. Outstanding speakers and performers are brought to the campus to lead the emphasis. These programs uplift the spiritual atmosphere of the campus.

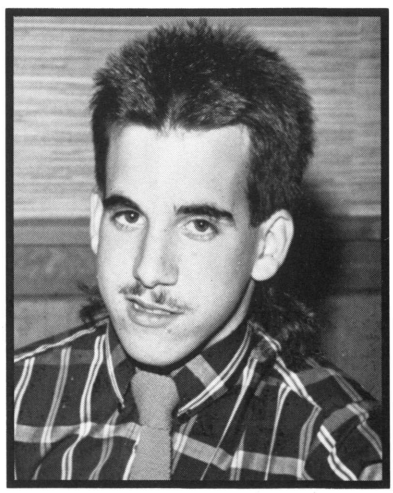

Rev. Steve Johnson, Advisor

"The SCA offers opportunities to explore the Christian faith in informal, educational, relationship-building ways. It's a way to make friends and meet God!"

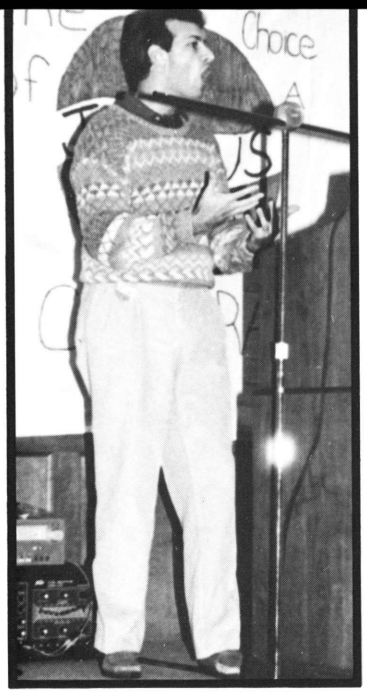

Rev. Steve Johnson

"Come and be a part of our group — it's a great group! You won't know until you give it a try!"

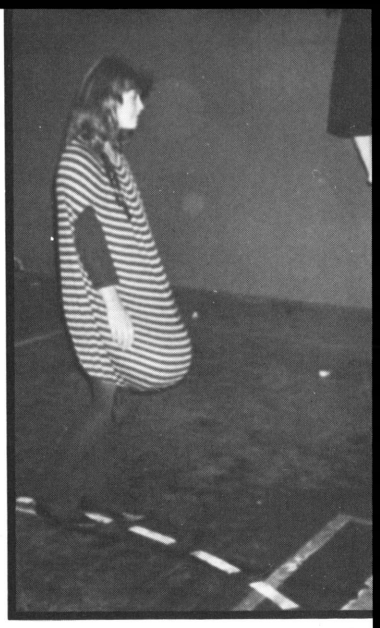

John Pico, SCA President

DRAMA CLUB

The MMC Drama Club is a select, yet enthusiastic group of thespians this year. Sponsored by director Bill Burks, our zany crew not only produces the annual spring production, but also participates in the Boo-Out and the Children's Christmas Party. The 1988 Spring show, Goodbye My Fancy, was a laudable success, and we are confident that this year's production shall be just as spectacular.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Gil B. Abernathy, longtime friend of MMC, members of the Drama Club travel regularly to Nashville's TPAC to see performances at the Circle Theatre.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

Delta Psi Omega is the national honorary dramatic fraternity for two-year colleges. One must show aptitude as well as dedication to theatre for consideration as an initiate. Additionally, one must have a major role in the annual production and must be approved by the sponsor and all members. Delta Psi Omega has a long-standing tradition for quality theatre at Martin that is reflected in its members.

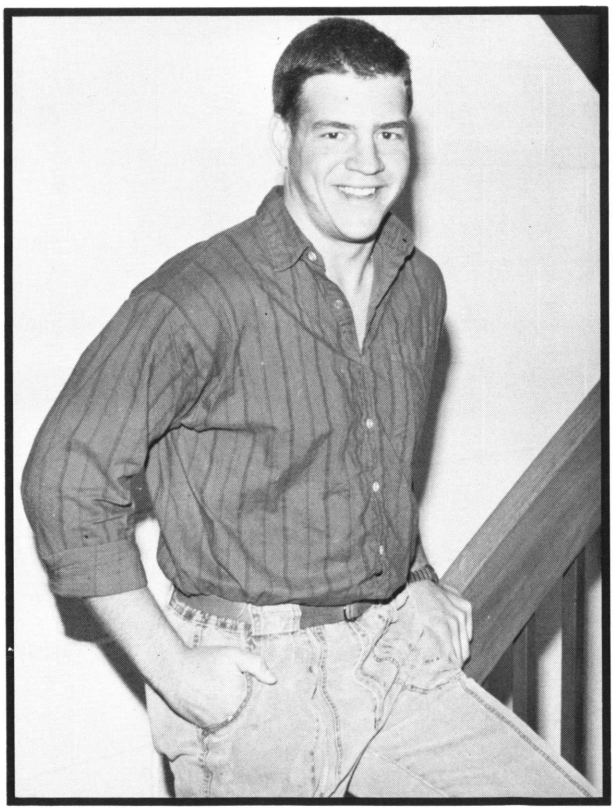

PHI THETA KAPPA

Phi Theta Kappa is an honorary club whose goals are to promote scholarships and develop character. To be a member of Phi Theta Kappa one must have a 3.5 grade point average for a given session and no less than a 3.3 overall average. Phi Theta Kappa participates in the Boo-Out and other campus activities, as well as sponsoring the annual Student and Faculty Scholars Bowl which takes place during assembly.

Mark Bass, Phi Theta Kappa President

"Martin Methodist College has given me many opportunities that I might not have had at a larger school. Being in Phi Theta Kappa, and being named President, was an honor, and an example of the opportunity afforded more students on a smaller campus."

Mark Bass, Phi Theta Kappa President

GAMMA BETA PHI

Rita Griffin, Gamma Beta Phi President

Gamma Beta Phi Society is an honor, education-service organization for students in college and universities in the United States. Its name is taken from the Greek words meaning knowledge, life and friendship. The organization encourages scholastic effort, worthy character, high ideals and service to others. Membership is offered by invitation, and only to those students who have a minimum of twelve credit hours, rank in the top twenty percent of their class, and demonstrate commendable character and leadership qualities. Gamma Beta Phi participates in annual service projects as well as collegiate activities on campus during the year.

"Gamma Beta Phi is more than an honor society; along with the pride you feel in being invited to join, there is a tremendous feeling of well-being when the group works together to bring a little happiness to others through our various club activities."

Rita Griffin, Gamma Beta Phi President

PHI BETA LAMBDA

Dee Dee Fults, Phi Beta Lambda President

The purpose of Phi Beta Lambda is to provide opportunities for students to develop vocational competencies for business teacher education. Phi Beta Lambda is open to all freshman and sophomore business majors. Some specific goals of Phi Beta Lambda are to develop competent, aggressive, business leadership, create more interest in and understanding of American business enterprise, and encourage and promote school loyalty by helping in various school functions.

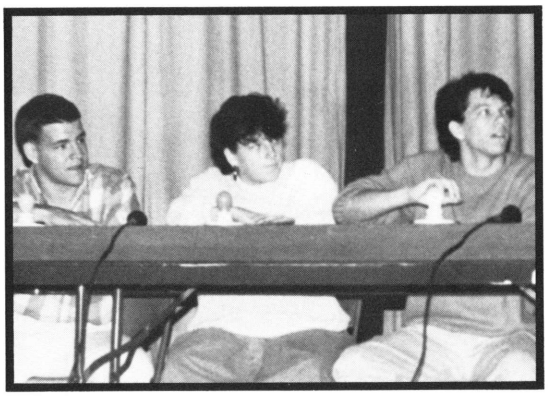

"Through being in Phi Beta Lambda, and eventually becoming its president, I have become more aware of my advantages of being a business major. The fact that MMC is a smaller college gave me the opportunity to be president of my favorite activity, an experience I might not have otherwise had."

COLLEGE BOWL TEAM

The College Bowl Team of Martin Methodist College is composed of students wishing to exhibit their knowledge of fact and fantasy to the world. As trivia experts and academic scholars, these players almost exude information as they engage in intercollegiate competition with teams throughout the southeast. Highlights of the year include tournaments at Emory University and Berry College, and the hosting of our own tournament for middle Tennessee high schools.

The Food Committee has a luncheon meeting every two weeks to evaluate food service, to hear suggestions from the student body on possible improvements or changes, and to plan menus for special events.

So this is how the Food Service Director plans the menus!

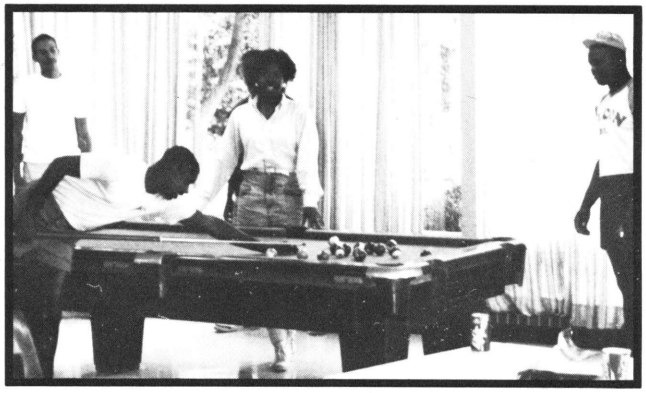

BLACK STUDENT ORGANIZATION

William Byrd, Black Student Organization President

The Black Student Organization is an organization dedicated to the study of and celebration of the accomplishments of Afro-Americans. The BSO celebrates holidays such as Black History Month and Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. During the spring semester each year, the BSO presents an assembly program highlighting contributions made by black citizens. Membership in this club is open to all individuals which are interested.

COMMUTERS' CLUB

Dr. Albert Hughes, Director; Andi Beckett, President

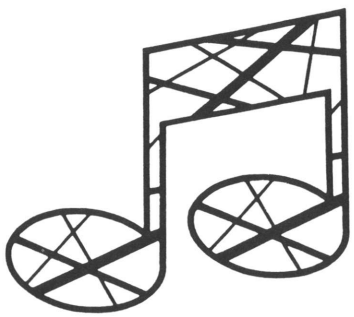

"It was a great honor for me to be President of the Choir this year. We had a super group of people who were very dedicated to the Choir and all that we were committed to do. The improvement of the overall sound was incredible this year, and I'm very proud to have been a part of this group!"

Andi Beckett, President

The Martin Choir is a very important part of the college's extracurricular program. Under the direction of Dr. Albert Hughes, the Choir performs at the college, in the Giles County community, and throughout middle Tennessee in churches. This year the Choir was given the privilege of being part of a Christmas program aired on Channel 19, Huntsville, on Christmas Day.

"It has been a good year for both the Concert Choir and Daybreak. Our Christmas and Spring concerts are always highlights of the year."

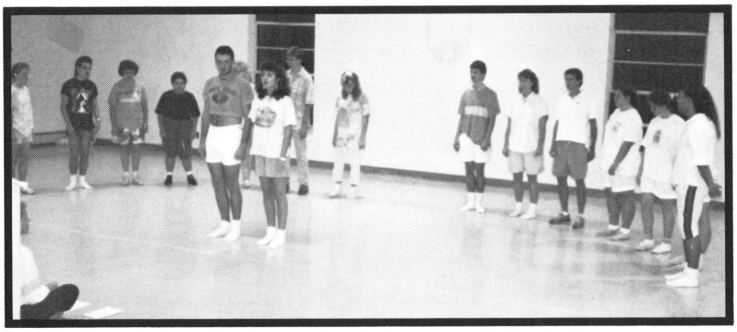

Albert Hughes, Choir Director

Daybreak is a jazz-pop music group, also under the direction of Dr. Albert Hughes. This year their program consisted of standard pop and show tunes, as well as some patriotic numbers. The assistance of a choreographer from Birmingham, Alabama was enlisted this year. Daybreak performs its show for events on campus, such as Parents' Day, and also plays to local clubs and high schools.

The International Club is a fellowship of individuals that promotes interest in the different cultures of the world. The club meets regularly to discuss and plan programs and events to promote awareness of the various cultures. In addition, several social events and trips are held throughout the year. The club also presents a program at assembly once a year to deepen the student body appreciation of the contributions of our international students.

This year has certainly been . . . interesting. When I first learned I was to be the yearbook advisor for this year I knew it would be a challenge, given the fact that I had never done this before, but oh what a challenge it turned out to be! But I was fortunate to have a great staff, all willing to work hard, and what's more, willing to put up with me! I learned from this experience that I can indeed be in several places at one time, doing a dozen different things, and answering as many questions — all at the same time!

We hope you enjoy the '89 Martinaire. We chose to do some things differently, endeavoring to make the most of too-few pages. Now that this project is over, my staff and I feel "the spirit of relief and contentment" that our job is finally done.

Keith Bogle, Editor

As I look back over the year and think about all that we did I can't believe it is finally finished. When Brenda and I first sat down and started talking about the yearbook we found out that we only had 96 pages to work with, and we wandered just how we were going to do it. Then we came up with this super theme "The Spirit Moves Us" and found a cover to match. When Brenda suggested the theme to me chills ran up and down my spine. After that it seems like everything just fell into place. We worked very hard and we had to write in paragraphs what we wanted to say in pages. But I think that is why this yearbook is so special — we put a lot of time into it and the Spirit if MMC was in each one of us on staff.

The Spirit of Martin doesn't just exist with the Martinaire Staff, but it exists in all the clubs, sports and classes as well. I have made a lot of friends here and when I am away from home, there is no other place I would rather be. Because here I feel like I am somebody, and at Martin I think everybody feels that way. In the past two years the Spirit of Martin has moved me, and it is something I will never forget.

The 1988-89 Martin Methodist College soccer team finished its second season of play as the Region VII NJCAA Champions. After a demanding exhibition season which included matches with Florida State, Mississippi State, Clemson, Alabama, VAB, and UAH, the Indians posted a 7-2 regular season record and represented Region VII in the NJCAA Southern Team Playoffs in Deland, Florida. Prospects for the 1989-90 academic year are bright with fourteen players returning for their sophomore year.

"These players accomplished a tremendous amount in the short period of time they played together. We are all excited about the prospects in 1989-90."

The Lady Indians have worked hard starting from the first days of school and the dreaded "gut week." Coach Johnny Jones has molded five sophomores and twelve freshmen into a complete family. Defense is the backbone of the team and as Coach Jones says, "Defense makes the offense." With a strong defense and a good offense the new coach and his ladies are looking forward to a winning season, perhaps even leading the conference. And as Coach Jones says, "You gotta love it!"

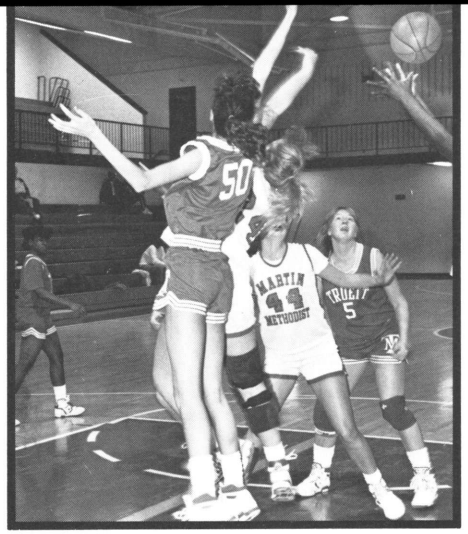

"I have been extremely pleased with the ladies' attitudes and work habits. We are looking forward to bringing back the winning tradition in women's basketball for MMC. We know that we face many challenges, but as the girls will tell you, their favorite quote is, "Accept the challenges so you may feel the exhilaration of victory."

We have had another good year in men's and women's basketball at Martin. We have several good sophomores that returned, and an abundance of freshman talent from the mid-state area and Northern Alabama.

"This has been an unusual year for me. Our season was almost ready to open and our team was very excited about the new season. However, the team failed to get a good start on the season, partially because of an unexpected heart attack I suffered that hampered practice and possibly game performance. After the Christmas holidays I was able to return and we were able to perform somewhat better. Many thanks to my brother Jack for coaching the team during my illness, and to those who assumed many of my duties in my absence."

Coach Joe Hardin

"The young men have demonstrated to me they have a great deal of character. To adapt to the situation of losing their coach temporarily just as the season started was difficult. They have the will to work and win. They will have a winning season after Christmas vacation. They are winners."

The MMC cheerleaders are a vital part of the athletic program. They enthusiastically cheer on both our men's and women's basketball teams. Their enthusiasm and spirit are contagious and fires up the spectators — all providing much-needed "vocal" support to our teams. The time and energy our cheerleaders put in is appreciated very much by our school.

The MMC softball team will play 26 double-header games this year, most of which are against four-year schools. This year we had seven returning sophomores and nine freshmen. Last year the Lady Indians were State Champs in Women's Fast-Pitch Softball in Tennessee. They were also Region 7 Champs in the NJCAA after beating Paducah, Kentucky two out of three games.

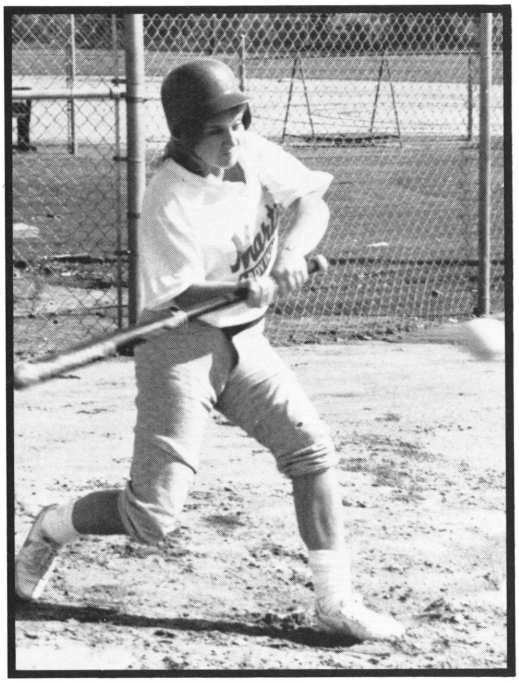

At the beginning of the season the team developed the motto "Feel It," meaning they have to feel it deep down in their souls the desire to go to State Tournament in May and win. On December 19th all team members were required to run two miles. At the end of their run coach Hughes gave each of them a pair of athletic socks with the motto "Feel It" on them.

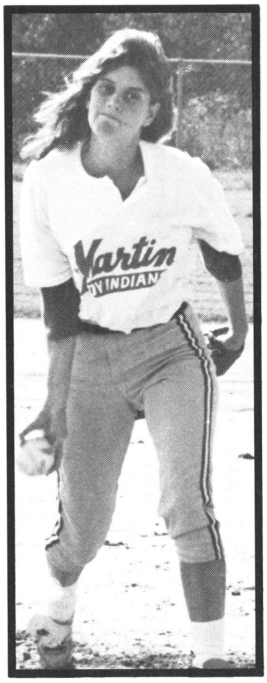

"I'm looking forward to a great season this year; the girls are enthused and willing to work hard for the end result — a winning season. We are especially strong in our pitching this year."

The 1989 Martin Methodist College baseball team features players from four different countries as well as the Republic of Puerto Rico. Locally this year's team will include Giles County natives Gary Gibson, Steve Jett and Todd Reed. Coach Lee's first year at Martin will pit a predominantly freshman team to compete in the always tough Tennessee Junior College league.

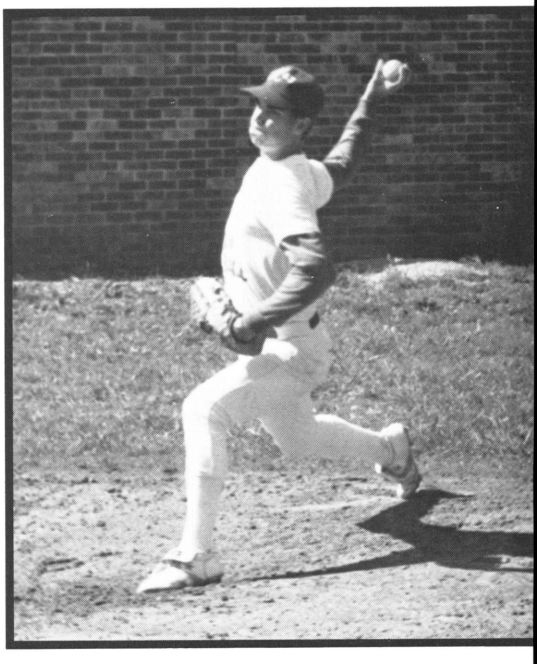

"The primary purpose of our baseball program at Martin is two-fold. First, to progress day by day as players preparing ourselves to win on the baseball field. Second, to progress academically in preparation to continue our education at the university level."

Golf this Fall season has been the best it has been in several years, and coach Hardin expects our team will provide strong competition in the Spring when Martin competes in the TJCAA Region 7 Tournament held at Henry Horton State Park. Coach Hardin indicated that this year he has been particularly impressed with the talents of freshman Brent McMahon and sophomore Sean Ladd.

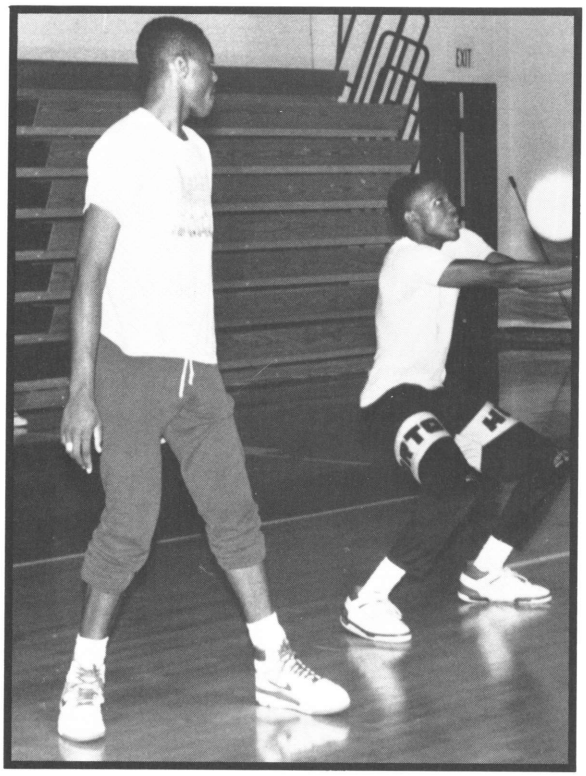

"I've really enjoyed working with this golf team. Their talent and concentration is refreshing."

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

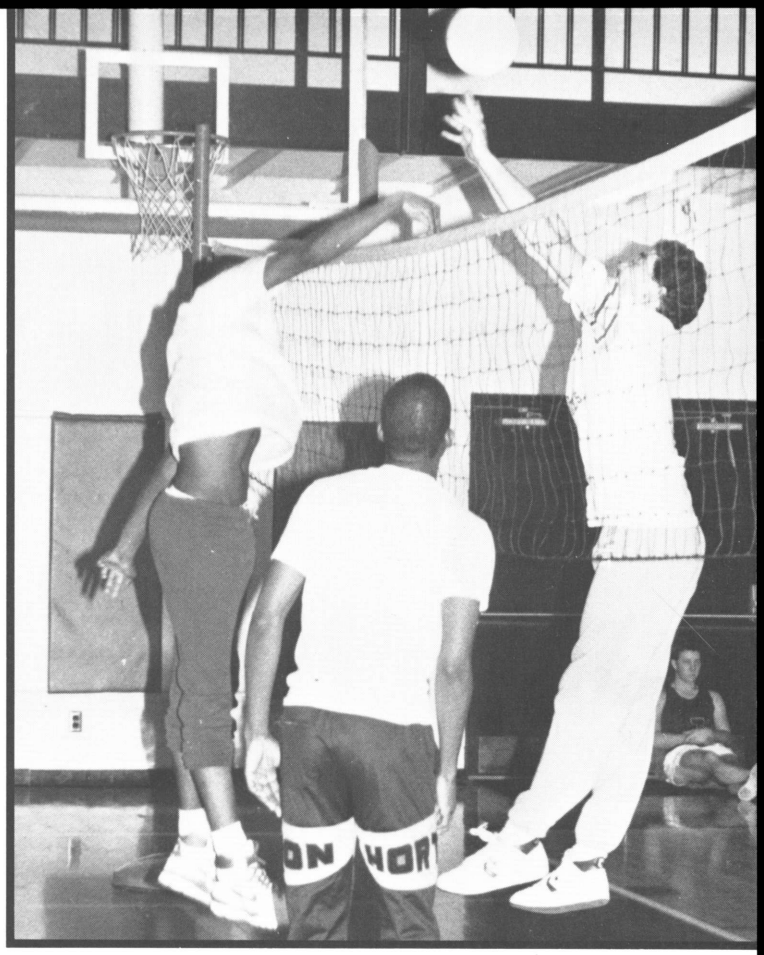

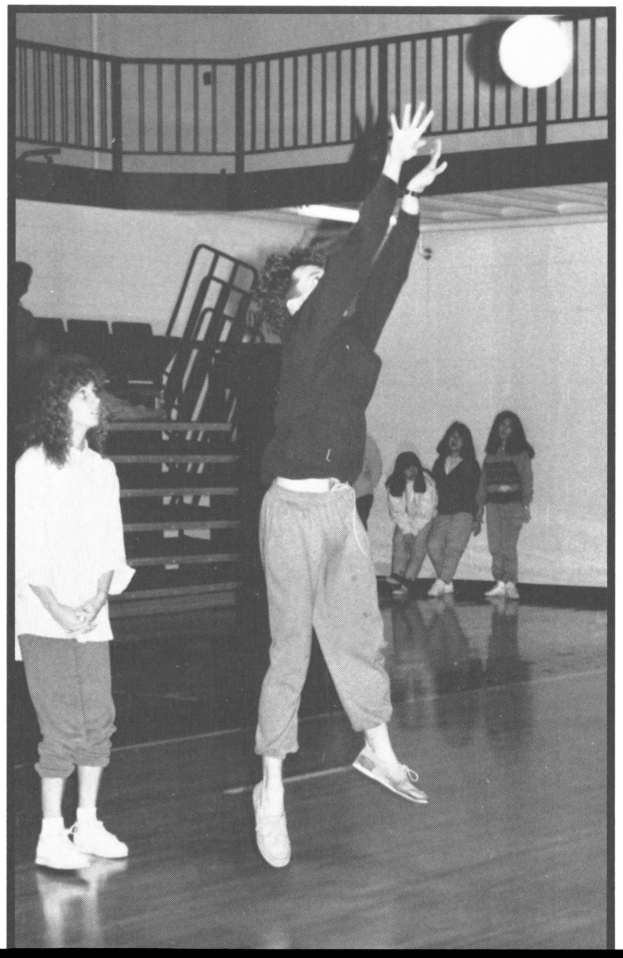

The intramural program at Martin Methodist College is designed so that students, both athletes and non-athletes, may participate in athletics on a competitive basis within the confines of the college. Both men and women compete in basketball, volleyball, and racquetball. Men are also given the opportunity to participate in three-man football.

DEDICATION

Reverend Marcus Nickell

Even though he officially retired from his position as Biology instructor in 1980 after 21 years of service to Martin Methodist College, MARCUS NICKELL has continued to be a central figure and a main character in the life of the institution. Whenever the college has a need Mr. Nickell always seems to meet that need, whether it involves tutoring students, constructing drama sets, providing scholarships to students, fortifying faculty with ham biscuits, cheering up staff with original and "unusual" poetry, or providing everyone in sight with his own "special recipe" cornbread and chili.

To the student body he is the Mr. Nickell of Nickell Picnic fame. For 20 years his farm outside Pulaski has been the scene of a college-wide picnic on the first Wednesday of October. For days in advance Mr. Nickell chops wood to fuel the fires for roasting hot dogs and marshmallows, and for weeks in advance he chases larcenous raccoons from his cornfield in his attempt to preserve the best roasting ears for students, faculty and staff to consume at the picnic.

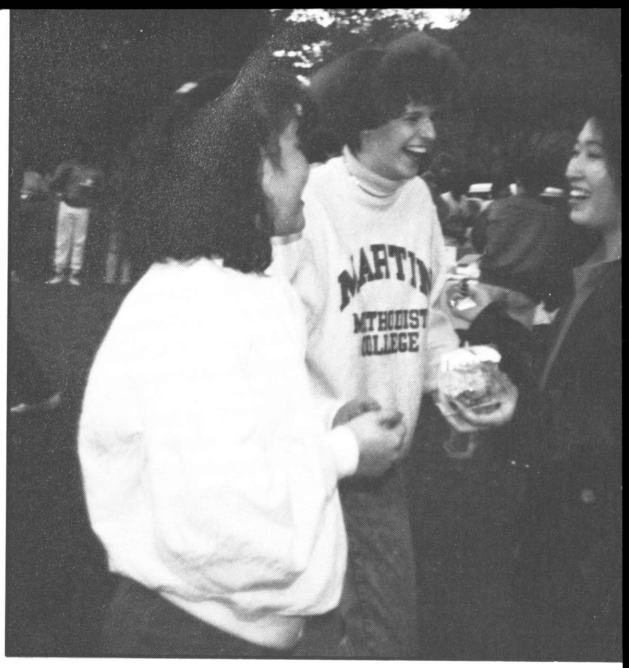

Born and reared in Hickman County, Tennessee, Mr. Nickell received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Middle Tennessee State University. Further graduate work was completed at George Peabody College, The University of Mississippi, and Auburn University. Married for 52 years to the former Martha Coone, a Hickman County native, they have four children and nine grandchildren.

In addition to his many contributions and years of service to education, Mr. Nickell also carries the title Reverend and serves his faith as a Methodist minister. For 33 years he has ministered to Methodist congregations and is presently serving Dellrose in Lincoln County.

For his many years of dedication to Martin Methodist College the 1989 Martinaire is lovingly dedicated to Professor Emeritus Marcus Nickell.

Spiritual Emphasis Days

S.E.D. Theme: Choose Jesus, Choose Life —
The Choice of a New Generation

Spiritual Emphasis Days, sponsored by the Student Christian Association, are the highlight of spiritual activities on the Martin Methodist College campus. This event, held for three days in the Fall semester, then again in the Spring, are used as an avenue for a time of renewal and re-dedication. These days are set aside to bring a special and more thorough understanding of the importance of the Christian faith in each of our lives.

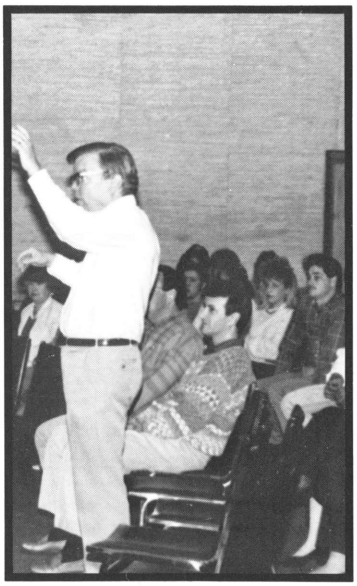

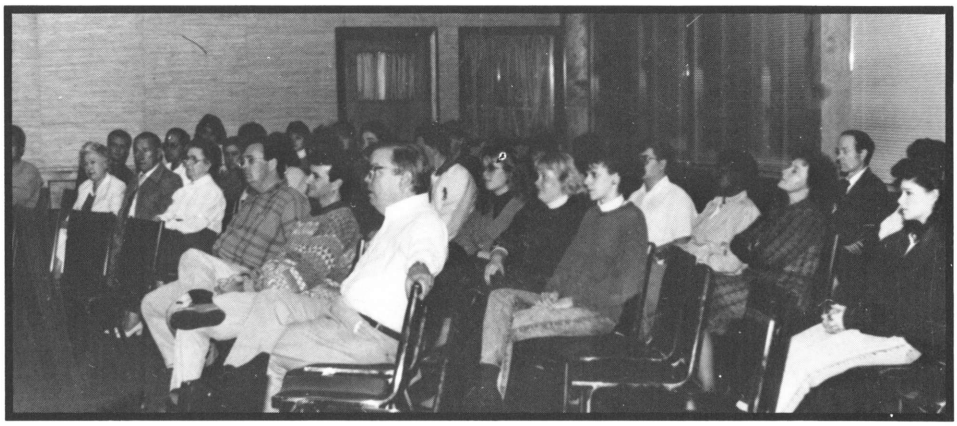

Rev. Kelly throws "kisses" out to the audience.

The Reverend Gary Kelly, a most interesting and humorous speaker, held his large audiences captive during the Fall S.E.D. His address "How To Choose Life: God Has A Plan, Man Has A Problem, The Choice Is Up To You!" proved to be quite well-received. Reverend Kelly is the minister of The First Presbyterian Church of Pulaski.

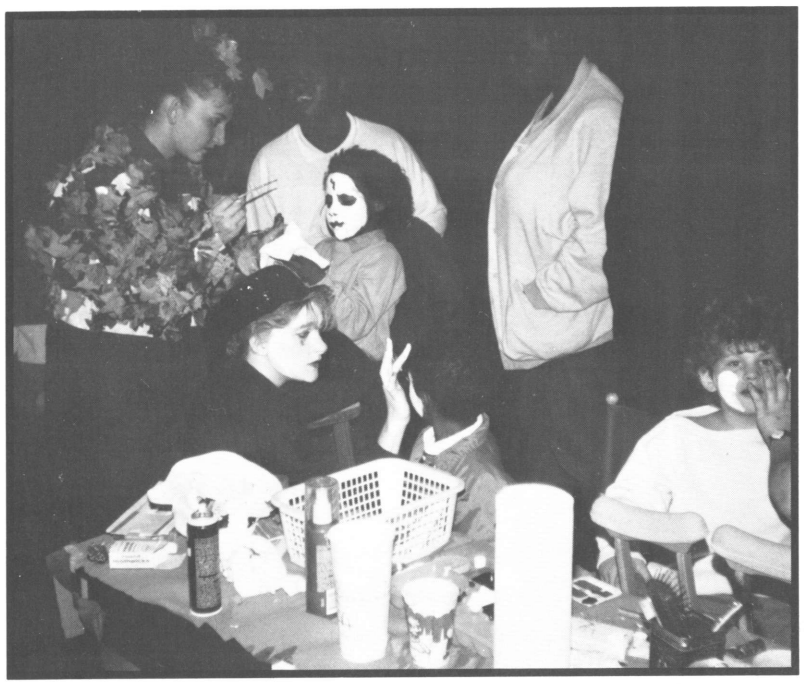

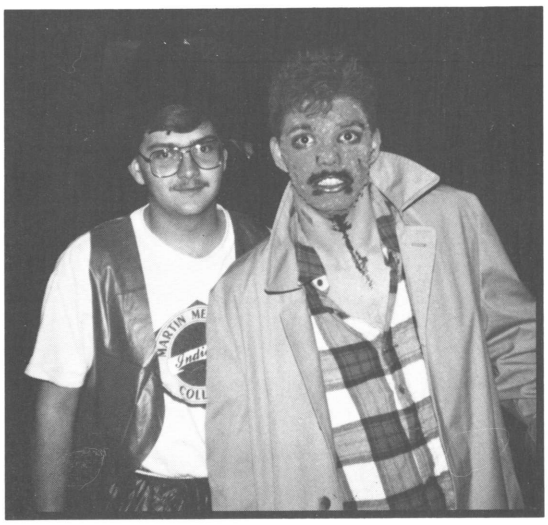

BOO-OUT HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Boo-Out, another event sponsored by the Student Christian Association, is a Halloween party held for some of the children of Giles County from low-income families. Martin students this year became very actively involved, enjoying the evening as much, if not more, than the children! Clubs set up booths, carnival style, and offered the children a variety of games to try their hand at. They could even get their faces painted if they wished! This year's Boo-Out was deemed a big success by everyone.

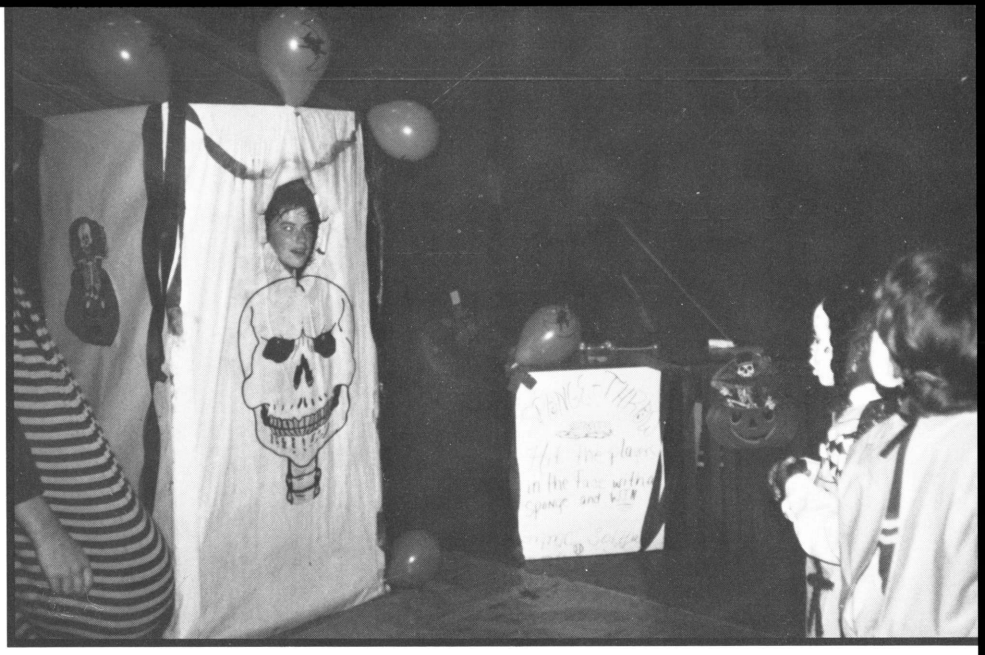

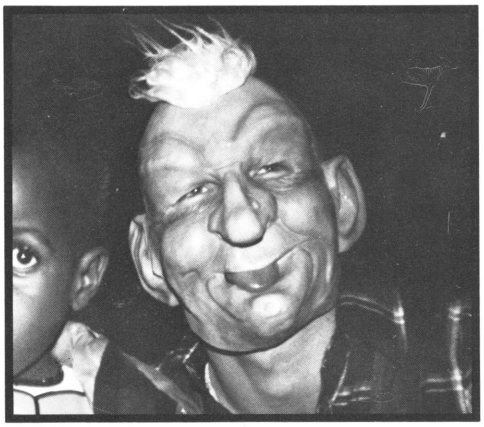

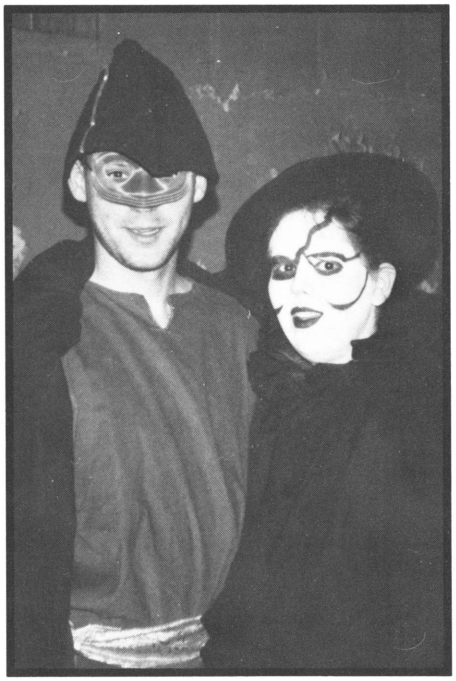

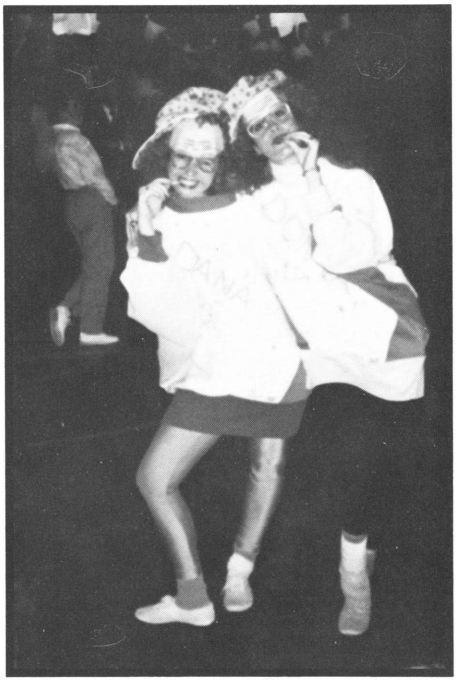

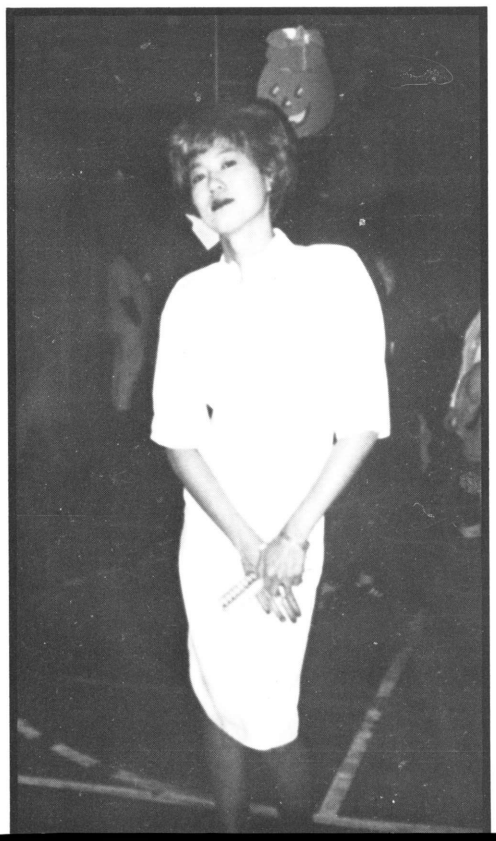

CHRISTMAS AT MARTIN

Christmas is a fun time on the Martin campus. Each year the SCA sponsors a Christmas party for children of low-income families of Giles County. MMC students who wish to sponsor a child do so by providing a gift and being their "buddy" for the party. Martin students also help the children make Christmas crafts and decorations. And the highlight of the party, evident by the looks on these children's faces, was a visit from Santa.

Even Dean Neville told Santa (Scott Storey) what she wanted for Christmas!

The Martin Choir provided a repertoire of Christmas music, as did the Athens Boys Choir of Athens, Alabama, under the direction of Dr. Mitzo Groom.

Martin students, faculty and staff gathered around the campus Christmas tree for carolling.

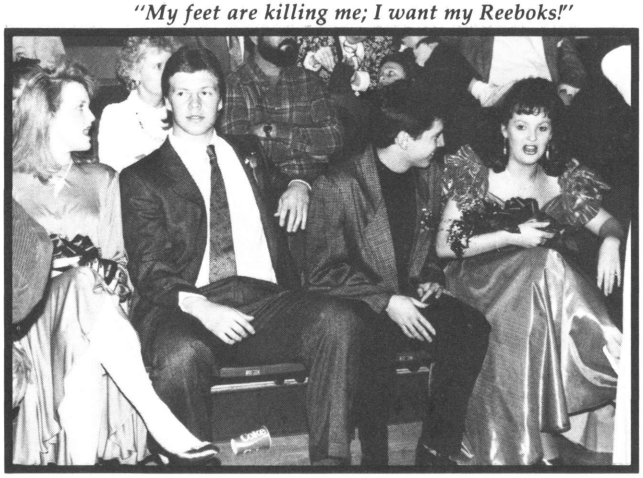

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming Court was chosen in the Fall Semester in a Homecoming Election in which most of the student body voted. The identity of the King and Queen was kept a secret until the night of the Coronation, January 21, 1989.

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN

The 1989 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges includes the names of ten students from Martin Methodist College who have been selected as national outstanding campus leaders.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have selected these outstanding sophomores to be recognized by the national program. Criteria for inclusion are academic achievement, leadership in academic and college activities, service to the community, good citizenship, and promise of continued achievement and success. These students join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,400 institutions of higher learning in all fifty states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations. Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934.

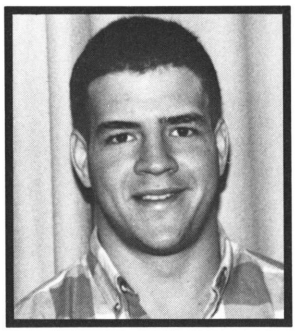

As a lifetime benefit, student members of the "Who 's Who" program are entitled to use the special reference service maintained for the exclusive assistance of students seeking admission to a senior college or postgraduate employment.

Martin Methodist College winners are honored with certificates presented to them at the annual campus Awards Day Assembly held just before graduation each year.

DELLA CLAYTON LEE CONCERT SERIES

The Della Clayton Lee Concert Series was created in 1978 as a means of cultural appreciation for the campus and community. The Series was named in honor of the late Mrs. Della Clayton Lee, a long-time friend of the College through her service on the Board of Trustees and as a patron of the arts.

This year the Concert Series provided a variety of entertainment. DUNCAN BARNETT & CO. filled Martin Hall Auditorium with the sounds of bluegrass and other traditional American music. Both Craig Duncan and Mark Barnett are faculty members of the Blair School of Music, Vanderbilt University.

A remarkably versatile performer from North Carolina, STAN BUMGARNER, performed one of the most unusual and highly-acclaimed shows of the series. Mr. Bumgarner utilized a slide presentation and commentary to add to the enjoyment of the music, then delighted his audience with a dazzling display of classical guitar virtuosity.

THE REPERTORY COMPANY OF AMERICA brought the musical comedy "The Diary Of Adam And Eve" to the Giles County community in November. This play is the first act of the Broadway hit, "The Apple Tree," and is an adaptation of short stories by Mark Twain.

The nationally-renowned CONCERT CHOIR OF BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN COLLEGE presented a program of both sacred and secular music. This choir, under the direction of Dr. Hugh Thomas, is recognized as one of the top groups in the country.

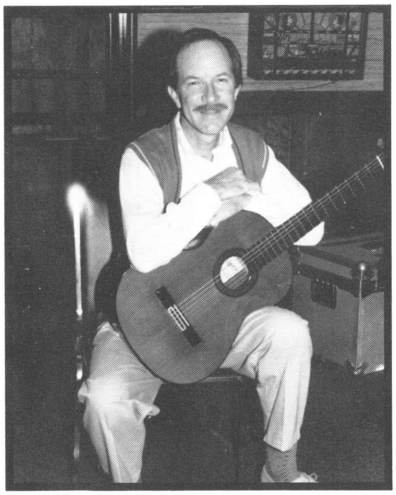

MS. AMY DORFMAN, another faculty member of the Blair School of Music at Vanderbilt, performed as a solo recitalist in March. Ms. Dorfman has appeared in chamber recitals in Carnegie Hall and at the Kennedy Centre in Washington, D.C.

The Concert Series this year was concluded by a return engagement of Giles County's own "Serenaders' Orchestra." Under the direction of Mr. Darwyne Hatfield, this group plays all of the big band classics from the 1930's to the present.

OUR CAMPUS

Martin College was renamed Martin Methodist College in April, 1986, after being under discussion for a number of years. A poll of Martin alumni was conducted and support of the name change was five to one.

Dr. Thomas S. Yow, III, twenty-eighth president of the 119-year-old college, said the inclusion of the word Methodist in our name is intended to affirm our ministry as an agency of the Church. While we do not necessarily teach Methodist theology, we do clearly and proudly support and transmit the values of the Christian faith. This addition to our name states to prospective students and prospective donors that we are an institution different from those operated by the State. Secondly, we are proud of our association with the Tennessee Annual Conference and affirm this relationship.

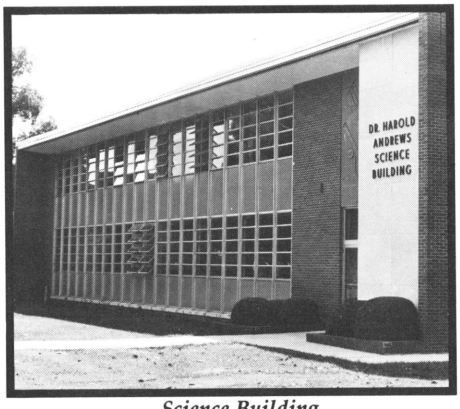

Dr. Yow went on to say that this is not the first time the name of the college has been changed. Originally it was called The Martin Female College. Later it was changed to Martin Female College and in 1938, when it became coeducational, the name was changed to Martin College.

Dancing has proven to be quite a popular activity on the MMC campus. During the school year several dances are held, being sponsored by ASG, SCA, the cheerleaders, and several clubs. The "biggie" is the Spring Dance held usually in April, and the students choose for it to be a formal affair.

ISN'T THAT SPECIAL!

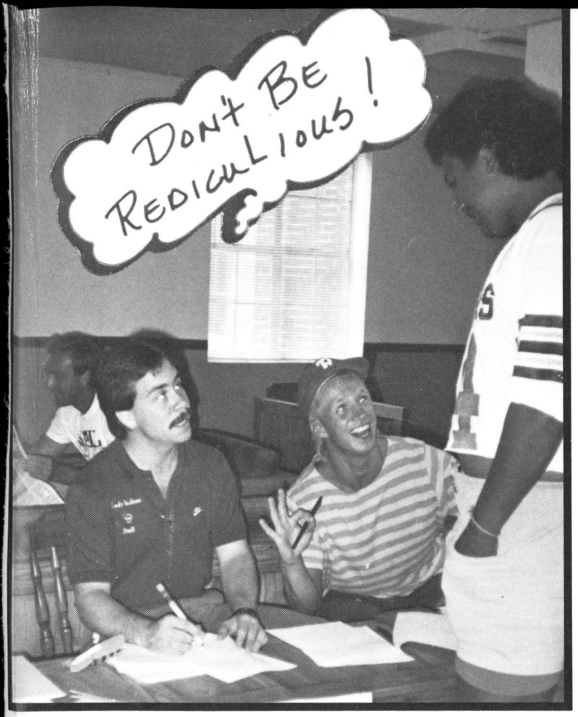

IS IT FRIDAY YET?
ANN NEVILLE

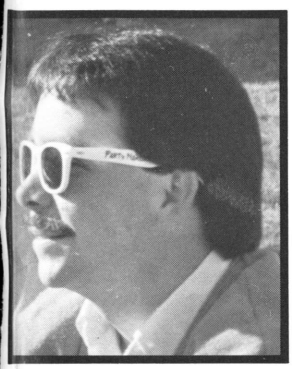

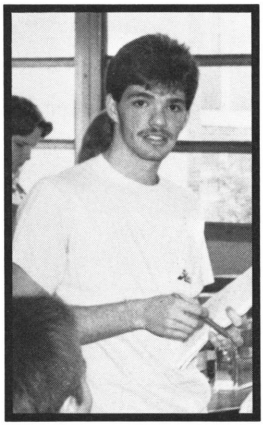

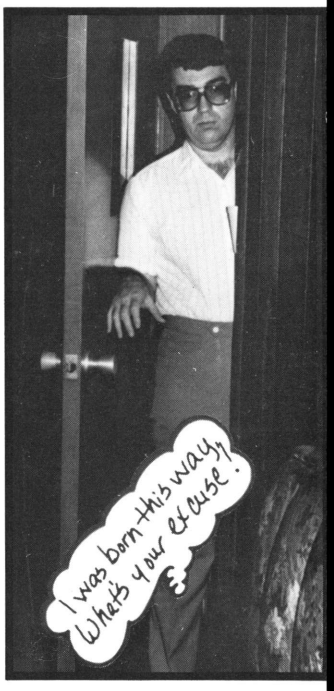

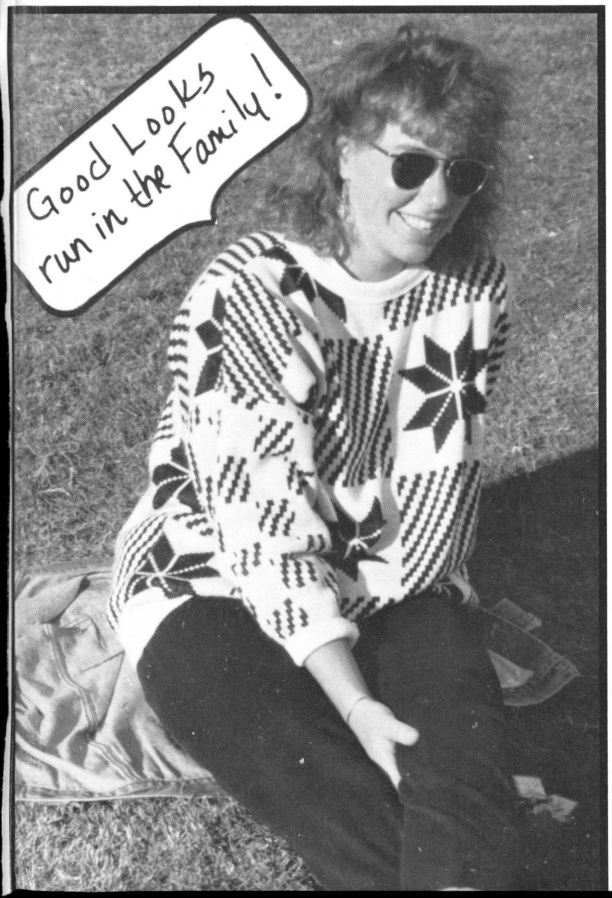

Thirty international students on the MMC campus this year represent Japan, Liberia, Zimbabwe, Canada, Jamaica and Puerto Rico.

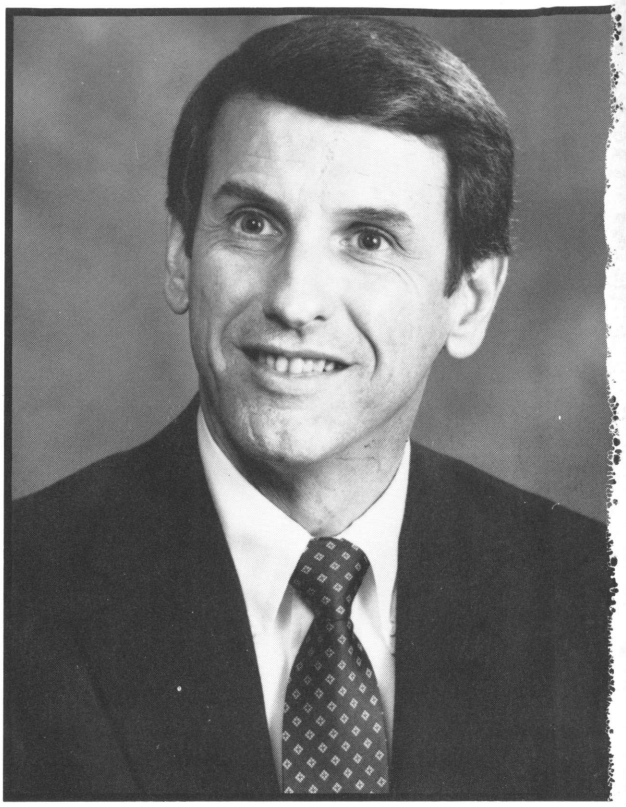

The 1988-89 academic year at Martin Methodist College has been an exciting one. We are grateful for all that the members of our faculty and student body have done to contribute to this institution and to each other. In higher education we learn from each other. Not only do the students learn from their instructors who teach them in the classroom, they also learn from their fellow students, both in the classroom and in the dormitories. The same is also true for the faculty and staff. We learn from students each year, and I believe we become better teachers and administrators because of what we learn from them. This spirit of cooperation and concern is an important part of church-related higher education.

We are also grateful for the spirit of fellowship which has been a part of the campus this year. From the very first week of classes in the Fall, it was obvious that this was going to be a special year. The student body "jelled" rapidly and the year was off to an excellent beginning. That same spirit of fellowship has prevailed throughout the year through the Boo-Out, Spiritual Emphasis Days, the athletic seasons, and other campus events. In each of these you have exemplified concern for each other as well as concern for the college itself.

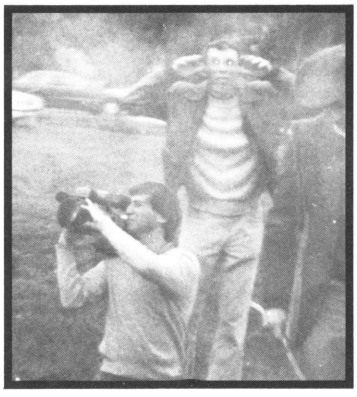

This spirit of fellowship will be important as you move through your collegiate career and into your job careers. Because we are concerned about each other and accept our responsibility for each other's academic and spiritual growth, our communities grow and prosper. Thank you for your spirit of fellowship and concern, which has helped make the 1988-89 academic year at MMC such an exciting one. Please accept my best wishes for the future.
